A strong election turnout among American Orthodox Torah Jews will earn us many delegate positions, which will enable us to fill board and leadership positions in Israel's national organizations, to influence and affect policy, activity and allocation of financial resources on the Israeli and global Jewish agenda.

ERETZ HAKODESH delegates represent the Yeshiva, Chasidic, Sephardic, and Israeli Torah communities of the United States.

If we are not represented, the influence, decision making, and allocation of funds will be controlled by those that do not have our best interests in mind.

Numerous Rabbanim, including HaRav Yitchok Berkowitz and HaRav Asher Weiss of Yerushalayim and HaRav Elya Brudny of New York, feel there is much merit in this endeavor and are encouraging us in our efforts.
