As we did during Covid-19 May 3 & May 17, Hurricane Irene, Derecho 2012, almost 20 years of Mitzvah Motivators and our All-You-Can-Make-Brachos-Buffets, O'Fishel is proud to present...

Give-the-Balabusta-A-Break Sunday 3.0

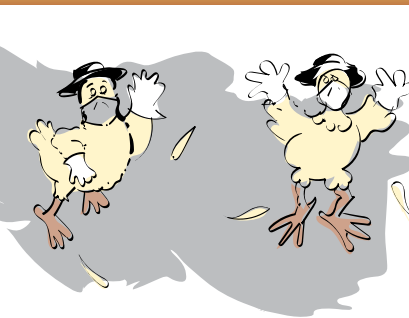

Sponsored by the families and employees of David Elliot Poultry Farms, O'Fishel Kosher Catering and Glen Burnie Transmissions.

It is not a governmental, organizational or school program, or community funded program.

THE COST: NONE. NADA. ZIPPO. THE CATCH: Please make a Bracha (blessing) slowly and meaningfully. If someone else can answer Amein, even better! The Brachos (blessings) made should be in the merit for the complete recovery of all Cholei Yisrael (sick people) around the world. ONE MORE THING: When you have the opportunity to help someone else in any way (shopping, calling, praying, etc.), please pay it forward!

1 Box Per Car. If you are a family of 5 or more, please see the rules and regulations.

This Week's Menu

CORNISH HENS
COUSCOUS
DESSERT

While supplies last • We reserve the right to substitute.

If you aren't a fan of chicken, please be aware that there are no substitutions, and allow others to benefit from this offer. If you would like to sponsor a different meal for the future, please contact us.

PEOPLE WHO SHOULD NOT COME:

- If you or anyone in your family has COVID-19 symptoms
- If you are not wearing a mask
- If you can't open your window
- If you need to make a U-Turn or left turn from Rockland Hills
- If you haven't read and understood the instructions on page 2

5-Or-More Clubbers - email MitzvahMo@gmail.com.

IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS & FINE PRINT (SIMPLIFIED):

- Drivers and ALL passengers MUST be wearing masks from the time they enter our parking lot.
- All windows and doors should remain closed, other than the rear passenger window (or side door in the case of a van), which must be open to receive the meal. If you'd like the food to be put in your trunk, please have your trunk open and have the Trunk sign (on later page) on the closed passenger window. If your window is not open and there is no sign in the window to use the trunk, you will be waived on.
- It goes without saying that you may not let your children out of the car to ride their bikes, hike, etc.
- Want to pick up for others? Sure! Don't forget to go back to the beginning of the line for yourself.
- Making a U-Turn or cutting ahead of someone in line, is stealing time from all our employees, volunteers and over 100 others in line. While we can be mochel (forgive) to a certain point, we cannot be mochel for everybody else. If you think this doesn't apply to you, it might.

DIRECTIONS:

In order to maintain smooth traffic, be courteous by approaching and departing our facilities ONLY according to the directions below. Do not block any driveways!

- ARRIVING (yellow arrows): From Greenspring Ave. North, make a RIGHT onto Sugarcone Road. Make a LEFT onto Pheasant Cross Drive. Make a RIGHT onto Rockland Hills Drive. Make a RIGHT into our driveway
- LEAVING (white arrows): Make a RIGHT from our driveway onto Rockland Hills Drive. Take the traffic circle to the RIGHT to Old Pimlico/Green Summit.

- B. They are קר cornish hens, not turkeys or penguins!
- C. They eat lots of corn
- D. They are the butt of corny jokes
- E. It's a segula for curing COVID-19 - anriken of Corona Nisht!
- F. Send us your reason, for future fame and/or notoriety!

Q Are you giving out tehina again this week?

Sorry. "Ain techina achar techina"

Q Can we pick up goodies anywhere else?

Ibid. "Ain Bishul achar Fishel"

FUN FAQs:

- Week 1: We cooked over 1,000 pounds of raw pasta. That's over a ton of cooked spaghetti!
- Week 2: We prepared exactly 4,000 cornish hens!
- Last week we gave out over 1,000 cakes.
- Mike Diamond's Shomrim provided a team of at least 4 Shomrim to direct traffic
- Mark Schwartzman volunteered as a traffic cop both times, and is going for the chazaka this week!
- Mark and Karen Schwartzman are sponsoring dessert in honor of Shavuot!
- Offer is limited, while supplies last. Also, because these meals are free, we regrettably can not offer any refunds!
- Cars were lined past Sugarcone, close to Greenspring Ave. (1.5 miles)
- There were only 4 arrests and 3 tastings last week (only kidding)!
- O'Fishel had 31 employees working, plus several volunteers.
- Frankie Storch's Chessed Fund provided much appreciated PPE.
- Thank you Rabbi Shapiro, Jeff Forman, and the MMAE team for stepping up to the plate for the community's benefit!
- Thank you to Lois from Soft Stuff for bringing down the hens.
- Thank you to our special team of unnamed and unarmed (mostly!) volunteers who help give out leftovers at the end of our events and distributions.
- Homeless cardboard signs will not be accepted before 6:00 pm!
- Our brand new convection ovens, provided by Martin Bamberger company in the nick of time, cook 320 hens per oven, increasing our capacity to 880 hens at a time. Thank you, Hank!
- Thank you to Simcha, Howard and Carol and the O'Fishel team for making this happen!
- If you know another community that would like to run such a program, have them contact us.
- The cost of the cardboard boxes alone for each week is $850. Sponsorships available. First come, first served!
